Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association
in Partnership with Emerald Coast Association of Realtors® Donates to Realtor® Members

Fort Myers and Cape Coral, FL – Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association (RPCRA) in partnership with Emerald Coast Association of Realtors® donated a total of $3,000 in funds to RPCRA Realtor® members. RPCRA requested an all-call of applications for any member who felt that one of their fellow Realtor® members was in financial distress brought on by the aftermath of Hurricane Ian.

Emerald Coast services more than 3,200 Realtor® members and covers Okaloosa and Walton counties. Their generous donation of $3,000 helped three RPCRA Realtor® members. RPCRA Board of Director, Que Raphael of Keller Williams Realty Fort Myers & The Islands and RPCRA RPAC Committee Chair, Stas Matias of Erin Catron & Company, presented each recipient with a $1,000 check. Among the recipients were Juliana DaCosta, Dexter Evans, and Kathryn Lawson-Fritsch.

"Being able to offer financial support, of any kind, is always a blessing," said Beate Jones, RPCRA CEO. "And being able to give to those who give to our community makes it all the more rewarding."
